Eligibility Criteria

Eligibility Factors

S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index. The index contains only one security, the Benchmark bond. Bid price is provided by Refinitiv. Bonds not priced by the designated pricing source are ineligible for index inclusion.

S&P BSE Liquid Rate Index. The index is calculated using the TREP rate for transactions maturing on the following business day and with settlement type T+0. Rates used are provided by Clearing Corporation of India Ltd (CCIL).¹

¹ TREP rate is from CCIL website: <https://www.ccilindia.com/TripartyRepo/Pages/Statistics.aspx>.

Index Construction

Index Calculations

S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index. The total return for the index is calculated by aggregating the interest return (reflecting the return due to paid and accrued interest) and price return (reflecting the gains or losses due to changes in the end-of-day price). Coupons are reinvested into the index on the coupon payment dates.

S&P BSE Liquid Rate Index. The index is calculated by applying the return implied by the TREP rate as defined in the eligibility criteria to the previous day's index level. Please refer to Appendix II for further details.

For further details regarding index calculations please refer to S&P Dow Jones Indices' Fixed Income Index Mathematics Methodology.

Index Maintenance

Rebalancing

S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index. In order to keep the index current, the index is reviewed and rebalanced monthly in accordance with the below stated schedule. The Index Committee, nevertheless, reserves the right to make adjustments to an index at any time that it believes appropriate.

Rebalancing Schedule
Rebalancing Frequency	Monthly
Rebalancing Date	Last day of the rebalancing period (T)
Announcement Date	T minus 3
Reference Date	T minus 4

All days reflect after the close and count business days

Additions, deletions and other changes to the index arising from the rebalancing are made provided the security's reference information and pricing are available by designated pricing and data providers on the rebalancing reference date. Changes to the index are published on the announcement date and become effective on the rebalancing date. Information related to the rebalancing is obtained and disseminated after the close of business.

Additions

A replacement security is added to the index at the rebalancing, as long as S&P Dow Jones Indices has access to price and coupon information from Refinitiv.

Deletions

A constituent is deleted from the index at the rebalancing when the corresponding replacement security is added to the index.

Ongoing Maintenance

The index is also reviewed on an ongoing basis to account for the following:

- When an index bond is in default or misses an interest payment, the price reported by the pricing source is used. However, the Index Committee may determine that the bond be removed from the index at a different price and may specify a price of 0.00. The decision of the Index Committee is final.
- If an index bond is no longer priced by the pricing source, the last available price is used.

However, the Index Committee may determine that a different price be used. The decision of the Index Committee is final. For clarity, index bonds that are no longer priced by the pricing source fail to meet the pricing eligibility factors and are removed at the next rebalancing date. If the bond is priced for at least one of the five business days prior to the rebalancing announcement date, the bond remains in the index. Otherwise, it is removed from the index at the subsequent rebalancing date.

S&P BSE Liquid Rate Index. The index represents the performance of a daily rolling deposit and does not undergo a rebalancing, unlike the S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index.

Under unusual circumstances, the Index Committee reserves the right to not publish the index on a specific date.

Where applicable, index changes published in the announcement are not normally subject to revision and become effective on the rebalancing date, as long as S&P Dow Jones Indices has access to price and coupon information.

Currency of Calculation and Additional Index Return Series

The indices are calculated in Indian rupees. In addition, the S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index is also calculated in U.S. dollars and Qatari riyals.

S&P BSE India 10 Year Sovereign Bond Index. The Financial Benchmarks India Private Limited (FBIL) Reference Rate is used for the U.S. dollar version.² Refinitiv spot rate, captured at 3:45 PM Qatar time, is used for the Qatari riyal version.

Additional currency and currency hedged versions of the indices, as well as maturity, sector, and rating-based sub-indices, may be available. For a list of available sub-indices and tickers, please refer to S&P Dow Jones Indices' Fixed Income Index Directory available at www.spglobal/spdji.com.
